Vancouver - A thriller starring Anne Hathaway (The Devil Wears Prada) is the latest production to go to camera at Vancouver's Brightlight Pictures. Passengers, a feature film for Hollywood's Mandate Pictures and Persistent Entertainment, began shooting in Vancouver Jan. 15 and wraps early March.

Directed by Rodrigo García (Nine Lives, Things You Can Tell Just by Looking at Her), the story follows a grief counselor (Hathaway) who is trying to help a group of plane crash survivors who begin to disappear mysteriously. Patrick Wilson (Little Children) costars.
